FOREWORD

Just as Time has seen mankind progress from the birch bark canoe of our earliest inhabitants to the mighty monarch sailing the four seas, so also has it seen the Red Lion High School develop from a small center of learning to the present ever-expanding institution, continuing to give its educational service to the youth of America. So also has the "Cub" of the past matured to the "Leonian" of the present.

It is the hope of the Class of 1935 that this book may serve as a reminder of the days that were; that it may recall the spirit and atmosphere of your high school days which, once gone, can never be regained. The extent to which it has done this determines whether or not it has served its purpose well.

DEDICATION

The Class of 1935 respectively dedicates this volume to Mr. Harvey J. Becker, our sincere and valued friend, competent advisor, and diligent instructor. During his eight years as Principal of the Junior-Senior High School, Mr. Becker's works and manners have been such as to prove an inspiration to all of us. In dedicating this annual to him we hope to convey in a small way the affection in which we hold Mr. Becker and our gratitude for his enduring friendship and invaluable advice.

CLASS SONG 1935

Tune: "Let Me Call You Sweetheart"

Verse:

Here in dear old Red Lion High
Happy days we spent
Working, playing all the while,
As onward days went.
Dreaming not the time would come,
When this school we'd have to leave,
So with tears we now depart
And we'll grieve.

Chorus:

Dear old Red Lion High School,
We must leave you now.
To make our way in this great world,
We know not how.
We will always love you
And to you be true,
Red Lion High we're sorry
We must say adieu.

NATIONAL SCHOLASTIC HONOR SOCIETY

To be elected to the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools is indeed an honor. The members are chosen by a faculty committee on four primary requirements: Scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

Fifteen per cent of the Senior Class and five per cent of the Junior Class are elected from the upper third of the class scholastically.

Last year six members of the present Senior Class were chosen to represent what was then the Junior Class. They were: Hilda Keeports, Samuel Laucks, Jr., Elizabeth McAllister, Charlotte Strock, Robert Tschop, Thelma Warner. The Seniors elected to the Society this year are: Grace Baker, Marie Eby, Marguerite Frey, Wayne Glenn, Richard Holland, Electa Keeports, Dorothy Sinclair, Raymond Smith, Doris Sprenkle, and Samuel Wallace.

The following persons have been elected from the Junior Class: Dennis Geesey, Joseph Knaus, Marie Sechrist, Adella Snyder, William Snyder.

RED LION HILLTOP STAFF

The new Hilltop Staff appointed the beginning of this year has published a tri-weekly newspaper during the school year. The circulation was increased over that of previous years and the newspaper published in Red Lion for the first time in its history.

The staff attended several interesting and instructive press conferences during the year, constantly seeking to improve the quality of the newspaper. The members of the staff are: Editor-in-Chief, Robert Tschop; Managing Editor, Samuel Laucks; Assistant Managing Editors, Mary Barteaux and Adella Snyder; Associate Editors, Charlotte Strock and Joseph Knaus; News Editors, Electa Keeports, Elizabeth McAllister and William Gates; Feature Editor, Doris Sprenkle; Literary Editors, Richard Holland and Josephine Inners; Society Editor, Dorothy Sinclair; Sports Editor, Boys, Donald Kinard and Sylvan Jacobs; Girls, Betty Warner and Hilda Keeports; Alumni Editor, Kathryn Hake; Exchange Editor, Ferne Poet; Reporters, Hilda Ferree and Estella Mae Keeports; Business Manager, Fred Thompson; Advertising Manager, Edward Thompson; Assistant Advertising Manager, Earle Hartman; Circulation Manager, Raymond Smith; Assistants, Richard Bull and Preston Eisensmith; Typists, Genevieve Curran and Edwin Trout; Faculty Advisor, Miss Wilma L. Stern.

NATIONAL ATHLETIC SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY

This organization, as its name implies, is limited to those persons who have earned a school letter and who at the same time have a sufficiently high average in their school work. It demonstrates that one can be both "brawny" and "brainy."

The Senior members of the Society are:

WILLIAM GATES—Track Mgr.
WAYNE GLENN—Baseball, Basketball
RICHARD GROVE—Football, Track
RICHARD HOLLAND—Football
RICHARD KINARD—Football
ROBERT MANCHEY—Track
DALE W. SMITH—Football

SENIOR PLAY

"A Strenuous Life," a three-act comedy, was presented by the Class of 1935 in the Municipal Building on Monday and Tuesday, February 11 and 12, 1935. This play was declared by many of the large number who witnessed it to be one of, if not the best, high school presentation ever given here.

The plot of the play centered around Tom Harrington, a senior in college and captain of the football team. Tom, while really being very lax in his studies, has continually written to his father telling him of honors and successes. When his father decides to observe Tom's extremely successful college career for himself, that harassed young man is compelled to tell lie upon lie until finally he is found out. With the aid of Nugata he is vindicated, however, and all is well.

JUNIOR PLAY

The Class of 1935 presented as its Junior Play a three-act comedy entitled, "Junior Sees It Through." The play was given Friday and Saturday, April 6 and 7, 1934, in the Municipal Building. It is remembered by many as being a notable improvement over some of the high school presentations in recent years.

The cast of characters was as follows: "Junior Harbeck," Robert Stambach; "Lynda Reynolds," Jessie Seitz; "George Harbeck," Robert Tschop; "Henry Harbeck," Raymond Smith; "Esther Mae Matthews," Thelma Warner; "Ellen Harbeck," Martha Smith; "Grandma Harbeck," Electa Keeports; "Miss Reynolds," Kathryn Smith; "Howard Randall," William Frutiger; "Morris Shulerman," William Gates; "Judge Thatcher," Russell Smith.

Junior Harbeck, the hero of the play, was the despair of his family. While Junior never seemed to do anything of any good, his brother, George, who had won a medal for a prize architectural plan, was the hope of the Harbeck family. George, impressed by his own renown, has a plan to remodel the town in which he lives, and in so doing he is entangled in legal and economical difficulties; leaving it to Junior to straighten matters out and have the family's opinion of him raised considerably.

ORCHESTRA

The Senior High School Orchestra, under the capable direction of Miss Ruth Whitmore, again enjoyed a successful year. The group of talented musicians furnished the music at both Senior and Junior plays and again gave a good account of themselves at the York County Scholastic Meet.

The instrumentation is as follows:

BAND

The Band, under the direction of Miss Ruth Whitmore, while not having an extremely active year, made an impressive showing when it appeared in full uniform at the various home football games last fall. The new band uniforms do ample justice to the organization.

The last of the debt remaining on the outfits was removed by using the proceeds of the three-act play, "Clarence," presented in the Municipal Building by the faculty of the high school on October 11-12.

The members of the band are:

FOOTBALL

A new major sport was instituted in Red Lion High in 1934-35 when a football team was put on the field with Charles R. Nitchkey as Head Coach and Clair A. Frits as Assistant Coach. From all green material, a team was selected which won two games, tied one, and lost three. This record is remarkable for the first year, when one considers the fact that Red Lion has never been a center of "sand lot" football.

The season's record follows:

Red Lion	0,	New Freedom	6	Red Lion	2,	West York	6
Red Lion	0,	West York	0	Red Lion	0,	Hanover	50
Red Lion	26,	Delta	14	Red Lion	26,	Biglerville	6

Richard Holland, tackle and end, captained the Gold and Black gridders in their first season. Joseph Knaus center will succeed Holland next season.

THE LEONIAN

BASKETBALL

The 1934-35 Gold and Black cagers finished a most successful season on March 23. Although having very little to show for it, the Lions won 21 games while losing only five. This record closely resembles that of the 1930-31 team, which won 21 and lost four and which is generally acknowledged to be the best in the history of the school.

Notable features of the season were: Two victories over Hanover High, a two-point, extra-period victory over North York on a foreign floor, and a four-point defeat by North York at Red Lion, in a battle of long shots; the defeat of Red Lion by Wrightsville, and the victory at the latter place, the first home game the Rivertowners lost for three years; the sensational ten-point victory over Hershey High at Carlisle; and the last game triumph—York High by a 28-21 margin.

Under the able leadership of Captain "D" Hall the Lions scored 841 points in 26 games while limiting their opponents to 549 points.

SENIOR HIGH VARSITY

Hall, forward, Captain; Glenn, forward; Geesey, center; Craley, guard; Thompson, guard; Gohn, guard and forward; Edwin Trout, forward; Irwin Trout, guard.

BASEBALL

Ah! At last the baseball team makes its appearance. Coach Nitchkey enjoyed keen competition among the candidates at his early spring practices. Much young talent was selected to follow in the footsteps of those upperclassmen who have been graduated.

As we glance over the roster of our 1935 baseball team, we see Captain "Bill" Payne piloting our aggressive squad which includes: George Stabley, Robert Warner, Eugene Fake, Preston Inkrote, Irwin Trout, Dale Leiphart, Edward Thompson, Quinton Ellis, Leroy Gohn, Robert Manchey, Junior Kohler, Wayne Glenn, Dennis Geesey. Bert Stein capably "holds down" the job of head manager.

TRACK

Due to the inclement weather which characterized April, it was almost impossible to put the track in shape, and the track candidates were prevented from practice many times by bad weather.

However, at the time of this writing, Coach Yoas has been able to pick out a capable squad, which again upheld the standard of the Gold and Black at the annual Athletic Meet, May 11, at Red Lion.

JUNIOR HIGH VARSITY

The Red Lion Junior High basketball team, under the coaching of Clair A. Frits, ran afoul of luck during the 1934-35 season and lost nine successive games, two each to Hanover, West York, Mt. Rose, and the Red Lion Senior High Jay-Vees, and one to Edgar Fahs Smith. The Junior High reserve team lost three games, two to the Hanover Jay-Vees and one to Edgar Fahs Smith Jay-Vees.

In fairness to the team, Coach Frits, and Captain William Day, it must be stated that several of the games were "tough," being lost by small margins and late in the game.

The members of the team are: William Day, captain and guard; William Flinchbaugh, forward; George Schmuck, center; Robert Warner, forward; Ernest Dunnick, guard; Stuart Stabley, forward; LeRoy Hanna, guard; George Zeigler, center and forward; Ernest Ropp, guard; and John Matthews, manager of the team.

GIRLS' INTRA-MURAL CHAMPS

The championship of the Girls' Intra-Mural Basketball League was won this year by the Racketeers, a Senior team captained by Leola Bicking. This team compiled an unusually fine record, winning every one of their seven league games.

The members of the team are: Leola Bicking, Naomi Tarbet, Joyce Landis, Margaret Quigley, Martha Smith, Isabel Keesey, Mary Posey, and Erica Ohlrogge.

The team's record follows:

Jan.	9	Racketeers 28	Buckerettes	19
Jan.	14	Racketeers 60	Cubs	6
Jan.	21	Racketeers 22	Smoothies	2
Feb.	1	Racketeers 34	Sports	3
Feb.	6	Racketeers 18	Dragons	14
Feb.	8	Racketeers 28	Albatross	12
Feb.	11	Racketeers 22	Missing Links	15

GIRL LETTER AWARDS

Athletics for girls in Red Lion High School are conducted on a point basis, points being credited to the individual for having participated in the various sports. Letters are awarded to all girls having attained the required number of points.

In order to win a first letter, a girl must have earned 475 points. Jessie Seitz, Doris Sprenkle, Cynthia Taylor, and Vera Eisensmith, are the Seniors who have earned this distinction.

For a second letter 325 points are required. The second letter winners are: Leola Bicking, Gladys Briggs, Genevieve Curran, Margaret Druck, Electa Keeports, Hilda Keeports, Margaret Koons, Charlotte Marks, Janice Minnich, Margaret Quigley, Kathryn Smith and Naomi Tarbet.

To win a third letter the girl must earn 150 points. Minerva Gabriel, Hester Haugh, Isabel Keesey, Irene Grove, Myrtle Grove, Kathryn Lentz, Anna Rider, Pauline Seeger, Adella Snyder, and Margaret Uffleman, have earned the third award.
